Harlem, NY - WBA Super Welterweight World Champion Austin "No Doubt" Trout (26-0, 14 KOs), continues his mission of goodwill on Monday, January 28, 2013, at 11:00 am when he visits the Harlem Hospital Center (506 Malcolm X Boulevard at 135th Street in Harlem, New York).

A 286-bed acute care facility and a designated Level 1 Trauma Center, the Harlem Hospital Center includes a burn unit, an adult intensive care unit, a neonatal intensive care unit, a pediatric intensive care unit, and a cardiac care unit.

27-year-old Trout has always been active in several charities, especially in his hometown of Las Cruces, New Mexico, and has only stepped up his efforts since his star-making defeat of Miguel Cotto on December 1 at Madison Square Garden.

"This is Austin. This is who he is," said his promoter, Greg Cohen of Greg Cohen Promotions. "He's determined to use his celebrity make the world a little brighter for as many people as possible and that's very important to him. We're not coming up with these humanitarian efforts he is involved in. It's all him. Meeting people and giving them the message to never give up is part of what makes Austin Trout the man he is."
